UNITED THROUGH SHAS: ICHUD HASHAS PROGRAM TAKES SOUTH FLORIDA BY STORM

The grand Shabbaton last winter at The Westin Cape Coral attracted over 300 men, women and children, to celebrate the Kollel Boker, Kollel Erev, Lunch and Learn, and other innovative Torah programs run by Rabbi Smith. It was an opportunity to introduce yet another Torah program that would transform the spiritual landscape of south Florida. Ichud Hashas Zichron Binyomin Tzvi unites south Florida community members in the goal of finishing Shas together over Shabbosim and Sundays. Weekends are when we tend to focus on relaxation; the need to invest time into learning is often overlooked. Not anymore. With nearly 200 Ichud Hashas participants, weekends in south Florida are now unrecognizable. Ichud Hashas is particularly popular because it offers everyone in the community – regardless of their workday schedules – the opportunity to be part of something significant by participating in one or more of the Ichud Hashas sedarim: Shabbos morning, Shabbos afternoon, Sunday morning and Sunday night. Sedarim take place in Khal Zichron Naftali in Miami Beach, headed by Rabbi Smith, and in the Newland Gardens Shul in North Miami Beach, headed by Rabbi Dzialoszynski. You can learn at the location of your choice too. All Ichud Hashas participants join every third Sunday to learn one seder together, offering you a firsthand feel of how significant this team effort is. A full gourmet breakfast and dinner, respectively, are served at the Sunday sedarim as well.

ICHUD HASHAS IS FOR EVERYONE

It is very difficult for an individual to complete Shas within a short time frame, but Ichud Hashas Zichron Binyomin Tzvi makes it within everyone's reach to have a portion in our community's joint Siyum Hashas. Regardless of your learning background level, or how many of the Ichud Hashas sedarim you can undertake, you will find the perfect limud and chavrusa to accommodate you.

Everyone gets to choose the Masechta, or portion of a Masechta, that they wish to learn. Rabbi Smith and Rabbi Dzialoszynski help you find a chavrusa who will learn your desired limud, at your desired pace, schedule and location. There are a great number of Kollel members and marbitzei Torah who learn b'chavrusa with baale batim when desired, particularly for more difficult limudim. A special, custom designed app enables all participants to inform the program directors of their progress, to ensure that all limudim are on schedule. While everyone in the Bais Medrash is learning a different limud, they are working together towards a common awe inspiring goal: completing all of Shas. A grand Siyum celebration will iy"H be held - exact date to be determined – honoring every Ichud Hashas participant, and our proud communities as a whole. We all await this historic Maamad Kiddush Hashem with bated breath.

"KOLLEL BOKER IS FOR EVERYONE."

One of the most common refrains you hear when you speak to Kollel Boker participants is how the program can be enjoyed by everyone. The level of your Yeshiva background doesn't matter. Your garb doesn't matter. Neither does it matter whether you believe you have the extra hour in your day, or whether you're a "morning person." Kollel Boker participants are all very busy family men, successful businessmen and professionals, with intense daily schedules. Most originally did not believe that they could commit to this seder, certainly not on a daily basis. Many began with a mere once-a-week commitment. Yet eventually most of them progressed to a solid daily commitment.

Kollel Boker Makes Your Day. Kollel Boker is a highly rewarding experience that becomes an indispensable part of the day, infusing ruchniyus and energy throughout the day. "I feel empty any day I start off without Kollel Boker," is a common sentiment amongst Kollel members. The atmosphere in Kollel Boker is warm, vibrant and family like. You can learn at a basic or more b'iyun level. You will find a chavrusa who wishes to learn in a similar style. You will be able to easily relate to the marei mekomos that Rabbi Smith distributes each week, as well as to the weekly Friday morning chaburos delivered by participants on a rotating basis. The chavrusa shafts are lively and interactive. Everyone is involved and on top of their game.

*"Whatever your background may be,
whatever your work schedule may be,
the Kollel Boker is for you!"*

SUSHI AND LEARN

A group of young professionals gathers in Rabbi Smith's home every Wednesday evening to learn a variety of Torah and hashkafa topics. The atmosphere is homey and the discussions are lively. Everyone enjoys this kviyus ittim laTorah – along with great sushi.

KOLLET EREV: ILLUMINATING THE NIGHTS

The Kollet Erev, which is held in the Miami Beach Community Kollet's Bais Medrash Bais Boruch, serves as a warm, welcoming venue for anyone to come and learn alongside others, enhanced by an energizing kol Torah. The program takes place on Monday through Thursday evenings, from 8:00 to 9:00, followed by Maariv. Kollet Erev participants can choose to join Reb Shlomo Sprung's lively shiur on Maseches Bava Kama, or learn whatever they desire, individually or with a chavrusa, in another section of the Bais Medrash.

The SURFSIDE KOLLET EREV is located in Magen David Congregation, under the leadership of Rabbi Gavriel Koskas. A group of dedicated individuals have the opportunity to learn with a chavrusa or to attend Rabbi Smith's shiur on Maseches Baitzah.

N'SHEI ICHUD HASHAS: THE WOMEN'S PORTION

Following the spectacular success of the various innovative men's learning programs, Ichud HaShas Zichron Binyomin Tzvi recently founded an exciting women's program, N'shei Ichud Hashas. N'shei Ichud Hashas Zichron Binyomin Tzvi is a welcome resource for women across our community who are eager to enjoy intriguing programs custom tailored for them. The program debuted in September with a speech by noted inspirational speaker Rabbi Joey Haber of New York. The following month, an exciting Challah Bake event drew approximately 200 women! The Chanukah get-together featured a Wine & Cheese event enjoyed by all.

Guest Shiurim: Spread throughout the South Florida communal calendar are shiurim by special guest maggidai shiur on diverse intriguing topics. Rabbi Smith works to recruit out-of-town speakers that are uniquely popular and/or are experts in unique areas of halacha. These speakers make the trip to south Florida to inform and inspire, and are inspired by the significant turnout and interest they see at the shiurim.

TTTT HOLLYWOOD LUNCH & LEARN

The middle of the work-day is a time when most of us find it most difficult to drop what we're doing and focus instead on learning. That is precisely when a group of nearly twenty businessmen and professionals who reside and/or work in the Hollywood area come to Everything Deals in central Hollywood, and spend an hour dedicated to Torah and Tefillah, while enjoying a delicious hot fleishig lunch. At 2:00 pm, Tuesday and Thursday, Rabbi Smith – who makes a special trip from Miami Beach – delivers a 45 minutes shiur. The shiur topics constantly change, but they all relate to the practical halacha realm, which every member of the audience finds to be practical and intriguing. The shiur environment is very interactive; everyone feels welcome to ask their questions and offer their input. At 2:45, the shiur is followed by Mincha. The shiur room was expanded and furnished with sefarim, to turn it into a pleasant Bais Medrash. The Lunch and Learn program is so appealing that it draws solid participation throughout the year, including on taaneisim, when participants are hungry and no lunch is served. Many tourists visiting Florida join as well. The program was initiated approximately three years ago by our dear friend, Motty Winkler a"h. It still takes place on the premises of his business and is sponsored by his partner, yl't Shloimie Friedman. "Lunch and Learn is a fantastic way to 'bridge your day' with Torah," says participant Menachem Friedman. Several participants undertook additional learning sedarim at other times of the day since they joined as well.

WW&C NMB LUNCH & LEARN

Recently, a Lunch & Learn program started in NMB. Every Wednesday, at 1:30pm, a group of businessmen take a break in their hectic day and enjoy a shiur from Rabbi Smith, followed by Mincha. The program is located in the office of Benjy Winkler and Moshe Cohen, 507 NE 190th St. Miami, FL 33179, and is dedicated leiluy nishmas Motty Winkler a"h, Benjy's brother.

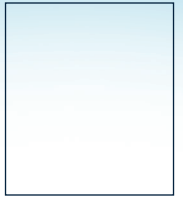

SPOTLIGHT ON HOLLYWOOD

Kollet Boker Zichron Mordechai of Hollywood is newer and expanding, and exceptionally warm and cohesive. The Kollet aims to live up to the values of its namesake, Motty Winkler a"h, whose compassion and Ahavas Yisroel were legendary. Every Kollet Boker Zichron Mordechai member feels like the program was custom tailored for him. Everyone is treated with the utmost respect, and develops a personal relationship with Rabbi Dzialoszynski, who serves as a rebbi in both learning and hashkafos. The Hollywood branch is unique in that every morning starts off with an interactive mussar discussion led by Rabbi Dzialoszynski. The Kollet completed Sefer Mesillas Yeshorim, and is now learning Sefer Shaarei Teshuva. Since the Siyum on Maseches Sukkah, the Kollet Boker of Hollywood expanded tremendously.

"I could learn on my own if I wanted to, but nothing compares to the achdus, structure and commitment you have when learning in Kollet Boker," says Will Coane. "This is a family of like-minded individuals, and both the Gemara and mussar learning very much speak our language."
